

6 PHASES OF A SUSTAINABILITY PLAN

| | |
|---|---|
| Building the Sustainability Team | What Public Value are you trying to sustain? |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify key players in your SPF-PFS initiative. • Evaluate the authorizing environment. • Consider members in your agency organization, coalition, or community. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What are you trying to sustain? • What needs to be sustained? • Sustainability objectives and goals • Any categories - organization, projects, ideas, relationships, outcomes. |

| | |
|---|---|
| Why does this initiative deserve to be sustained? |  |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What evidence do you have that the initiative is worth sustaining? • Any positive impacts in community, value-based results by community members or leadership team. | |

| | |
|---|---|
|  | Authorizing Environment |
| | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What institutional support, structures, and/or policies need to be in place to achieve sustainability? • SWOT Analysis of the authorizing environment. |

| | |
|--|---|
| Operational Capacity |  |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What capacity is necessary to achieve the sustainability goals and objectives? • Where will the capacity come from? • SWOT Analysis of Operational Capacity. | |

| | |
|--|---|
| Reflections & Next Steps |  |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflect on your position to achieve what you plan to sustain. • Identify your key next steps. | |